Description/Remarks

This is a 1-story, 3-bay domestic building in the Tudor style with Eclectic influences built in 1939. The structural system is frame. The foundation is undetermined. Exterior walls are original stone. The building has a multi-plane front gable roof clad in replacement slate with flush eaves. There is one off center in front, exterior, stone chimney. Windows are replacement vinyl, 6/6 double-hung sashes. There is a single-story, single-bay open porch characterized by an integrated (under the main) roof clad in slate with arched stone posts. The replacement windows are very similar to the original. This house has a field stone veneer that incorporates fossilized coral and other unique rock formations found in this region.
