Description/Remarks

This is a 1-story, multiple-bay domestic building in the Greek Revival style built in 1940. The structural system is frame. The foundation is undetermined. Exterior walls are original wood siding. The building has a low side gable roof clad in replacement asphalt shingles with box cornice. There is one offset right, straddle ridge, brick chimney. Windows are original, 12/1 double-hung sashes. There is a single-story, single-bay veranda characterized by a gabled roof clad in asphalt shingles with classical wood posts. The classical columns were procured from Southern University at Greensboro, Alabama in 1940. Morgan C. Jones, Sr. was the nephew of Col. Morgan Jones, renowned for constructing major railroads in Texas in the early 1900's.
